

Kindergarten Newsletter January 30th-February 3rd, 2012.

Thank you to Delaney for sharing her special items this week. Your seashell box was so pretty.

Our last student of the week in kindergarten will be Marlee. Thank you Marlee for being so patient and waiting for your turn.

Kindergarten kindness party will be on February 9th-Thursday.
Notice went home on Thursday.

Thank you to the Shields family for sending in plastic bags for the classroom.

THIS WEEK IN KINDERGARTEN WE COMPLETED THE FOLLOWING ACTIVITIES:

In reading our new story was called Bunny Day. Our amazing words were: chores, tidy, bustle, race, story and hungry. Our word work was on the sound of /h/. Our grammar was on naming parts and in the comprehension area we worked on sequence.

In MATH we continue to work with patterning. This week we were introduced to growing patterns-oh my goodness so confusing but we did pretty good.

In Penmanship we reviewed the letters Aa, Oo, and Dd and worked on filling in the missing lowercase letters.

In SOCIAL STUDIES we continue our unit on geography. We described the earth's physical characteristics. We worked on an activity sorting pictures that are land and water.

For Ground Hog day we read several Groundhog stories, made a graph, made groundhog puppets and worked on a dot to dot. We still have 6 more weeks of winter although it's pretty nice out-enjoy!

Have a nice weekend!

Our quote for the week:

"You cannot change the circumstances, the seasons, or the wind, but you can change yourself. That is something you have." By Jim Rohn.
